THE MEMBER.—Do the Government know that there are many cases of survey numbers not having been phoded at all for years together?

MR. N. MADHAVA RAO.—All such cases are receiving attention to the extent possible with the existing staff.

MR. B. L. BYANNA.—Are the Government aware that survey numbers 67 to 70 and 74 of Doddatogere Village in Begur Hobli, Bangalore Taluk, have not been phoded for a number of years past?

MR. K. MATTHAN.—We shall enquire into the matter.

MR. G. KANCHAPPA.—How is it that no hissa phod work has been undertaken during the current year in any part of the Tumkur District?

MR. G. B. HEELIKAR.—Phod work is taken up by turns. Just as last year Chitaldrug District was not taken up; this year Tumkur District was not. It is hoped that it will be possible to take up hissa work in Tumkur District in the course of the next year.

(c) What is the number discussed?

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT (MR. K. V. ANANTARAMAN).—

A.—(a) Statement is given below:—

The figures for 1930 do not include those sent to the Deputy Commissioners' meetings at Bangalore, Mysore, Shimoga and Chitaldrug as the connected papers are not available, and the figures for 1931 and 1932 do not include Bangalore District subjects.

(b) Under Rules 45, 33 and 23 of the rules regulating the business of the Representative Assembly, the maximum number of representations, resolutions and interpellations that is allowed to be selected at the Deputy Commissioner's meeting is as follows and this number has been selected on every occasion.

	Representations	Resolutions	Interpellations
Budget Session ...	90	10	52
Dasara Session	160	26	52

(c) Statement is given below :—

Year	Session	Representations	Resolutions	Interpellations

	Dasara ...	58	6	23
1934 ...	Budget ...	31	2	22
	Dasara	70	4	35

MR. T. MADIAH GOWDA.—How is it that so many representations and interpellations were allowed to lapse during the past ?

MR. K. V. ANANTARAMAN.—Obviously for want of time.

MR. T. MADIAH GOWDA.—Would it not be possible to see that many representations, etc., will not lapse at least in future ?

MR. K. V. ANANTARAMAN.—It all depends on how the members utilise the time at their disposal.

MR. T. MADIAH GOWDA.—In cases where representations, resolutions and interpellations lapse, why not the Government consider them and pass orders and communicate them to the members concerned ?

MR. K. V. ANANTARAMAN.—Government cannot consider undiscussed matters because it will not be possible for them to know the views of the House in respect of them.

MR. T. MADIAH GOWDA.—Why not the Deputy Commissioners take action on matters sent up for the district meetings but not included in the agenda of the Assembly ?

MR. K. V. ANANTARAMAN.—Deputy Commissioners are doing it in all possible cases except those directly pertaining to District Boards.

MR. J. MAHOMED IMAM.—Would there be any objection on the part of Government to pass orders at least on representations though they may not actually come up for discussion in the Assembly ?

MR. K. V. ANANTARAMAN.—The suggestion will be considered.

MR. BAGAMANE DEVA GOWDA.—So many questions are included in the agenda, but answers are not ready before the session closes. Answers getting ready subsequently are of course included in the proceedings as an appendix, but copies of the proceedings are made available to the members long after. In the meanwhile the members will have to send up the same questions for discussion at the next session of the Assembly but find later on that the proceedings of the previous session already contain answers to them. Would it not therefore be desirable to send the answers to the concerned members as soon as they get ready?

MR. K. V. ANANTARAMAN:—That may be done.
